BIBLE STORY 3

WITH JESUS

A

PRAY WITH ME

Dear Lord Jesus,

I know that I am a sinner, and I ask for Your forgiveness. I believe You died for my sins and rose from the dead. I turn from my sins and invite You to come into my heart and life. I want to trust and follow You as my Lord and Savior. Thank you for your forgiveness.

In Jesus name I pray,

Amen

1. Judas Iscariot who betrayed Jesus

(Matthew 26:47-56, Mark 14:43-50, Luke 22:47-53, John 18:2-12)

One of the twelve disciples, Judas Iscariot went to the chief priests to betray Jesus.

"I will hand Jesus over to you."

"Good! That's what we've been waiting for."

"How much will you pay me?"

"We offer you thirty pieces of silver. Now tell us. What's your plan? "

"Well, I'll think about it and tell you later."

Since then, Judas Iscariot kept watching for a chance to hand Jesus over to them.

Now, Jesus had finished praying and he and his disciples went down from mount of olives. Judas Iscariot saw and came with a large crowd armed with swords and bats. Judas already discussed with them about it.

"The one I kiss is Jesus. Take him. "

Judas went close and kissed Jesus.

"Jesus, How have you been?"

"Judas, are you betraying me with a kiss? "

While he was still speaking, the crowd came to Jesus and pulled his hands.

"Who are you looking for?"

"Jesus of Nazareth"

"I am he."

When Jesus said, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground.

Jesus asked them again.

"Who are you looking for?"

"Jesus of Nazareth"

"I am he. Take me and let my disciples go"

Suddenly, Peter who had a sword, drew it and struck the one of them, cutting off his ear. Then his ear fell to the ground. At this, the crowd, disciples and Jesus, they are all surprised.

"Peter, you did, again! Think before you act. All who draw the sword will die by the sword. Put your sword back in its place!"

"Jesus, I'm sorry. But I can't stand it! Oh! Look at him. Your disciple, Judas, he was one of us..."

"Do you think I can't call on my Father, and he will at once, send thousands of angels for me? All these things are according to God's will. It must happen in this way."

Jesus touched the man's ear and healed him.

Then Jesus said to the people,

"Am I robber? that you have come with swords and bats?

"....."

"Every day I was with you in the temple courts, and why didn't you capture me, then?"

"But this is your hour when darkness reigns."

Every one of them who had come for him stood still without saying a word.

"But this has all taken place that the words of bible might be fulfilled, according to God's will. Go on, take me."

They captured Jesus. Then all the disciples betrayed him and ran away with fear.

Every day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts, and you did not arrest me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled.(Mark 14:49)

My beloved son and daughter,

My children! Don't be sad. Only listen carefully what I tell you. It was great joy when I healed the sick and raise the dead. Everytime I saw their eyes, I could see love flowing with their hearts.

But I took my cross to forgive your sin. It was God's will. So that you can meet God in person.

Do you think I wasn't scared? It was scared, of course! But I followed God's will and made up my mind to endure. So I want you to have faith in me. And tell this story to your family and friends.

Jesus,
who took your place on the cross.

Beloved Jesus,

Jesus, my Jesus !!

How can you put up with that evil Judas? He was one of your disciples but betrayed you! He even kissed you when he joined the bad guys and sold you out! I can't stand that man! Never!

You know,, I like Peter. Because he taught him a lesson. Ha! He deserved it! But I want to follow God's will as you did. I will shout your name to everyone! My family, friends and neighbors! I will tell them about you so that they can live as heavenly children. Love ya!

Love,
I

2. lies

(Matthew 26:69-75, Mark 14:66-72, Luke 22:56-62. John 18:15-18.25-27)

"You will leave me all alone."

"What? We will never leave you, Jesus."

"Even if all leave you, I will never leave you."

"Peter! Tonight, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you know me."

"Never! Jesus. Even if I have to die with you, I will never say I don't know you."

"Me, neither. I will never leave you behind."

But when Jesus was taken to the high priest, all of them left him and fled.

Peter followed him at a distance. Because he didn't want to be recognized.

"I have to see what would happen to Jesus. If I am among these servants, no one will know."

He went right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the servants and warmed himself at the fire.

The chief priests and all the people were looking for a clue against Jesus so that they could put him to death. Peter looked at it with holding his breath.

Then, a servant girl came to Peter and looked closely at him.

"Oh! You also were with Jesus of Galilee. Weren't you?"
"What? I wasn't! I don't know what you are talking about."

Peter went out to the gateway with anger. There, a fire kindled in the middle of the courtyard. Because it was cold. Peter also stood warming himself. A man shouted at Peter recognizing his face in a firelight.

"You were with Jesus of Nazareth. Huh?"
"No I wasn't. Don't say a word."
"Yeah.. Surely you were with Jesus. You struck my cousin's ear with sword, this afternoon. I saw your face. "
"Hey! I was not!"
"Your voice tells me that you are one of them. I'm sure."
"I am not. I don't even know who he is."

In a little while, those standing near said to Peter again.

"I know who you are. You are one of those with Jesus of Nazareth."
"I swear God. I do not know Jesus."

"Cock-a-doodle-doo~"

The rooster crowed twice.

At that moment, Jesus and Peter looked at each other. Then Peter was alarmed remembering what Jesus said.

"Oh my... Jesus told me that tonight, before the rooster crows twice, I will deny three times that I know him. Ahh.. What am I going to do now?"

And he ran outside and cried aloud.

"My Lord.. What have I done?"

"I denied you three times that I know you just like you said."

"I told you that even if I had to die with you, I would never say I don't know you. But now, I did terrible lie.. Oh my Lord!"

Peter remembered what he said to Jesus. He said he was ready to go with him to prison and to death. So he wept and wept aloud.

Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows twice you will disown me three times." And he broke down and wept. (Mark 14:72)

My beloved disciple, Peter

Peter!

You are my favorite disciple. You were always right there, taking care of me. You always knew what I needed. I know you were a quick-tempered, so I had to teach you to be patient. But I also know you loved me all along. I bet you never knew. It was only a servant girl. But you denied me before her. I know you cried a lot and repented.

I have faith in you. No more mistakes. You will follow me as my true disciple.

Forevermore love you

Jesus,

Beloved Jesus,

Beloved Jesus,

Thank you for having a faith in me. Jesus.

I was really ready to die with you at that time. When I said I would never leave you like others, I meant it. And I said :You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." I meant it, too. I also said I love you wholeheartedly.

I'm not gonna lie anymore Jesus. I want to live as your true disciple. I will give my life for you. And I will shout to the world that only by your name, there will be salvation. Good news about you will be heard from all over the world.

The one who said I don't know you,

Peter

3. Jesus washing his disciples' feet

(John 13:1-20. 31-35)

It was just before the passover feast. Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. He loved his disciples who were in the world to the end, he now showed them his eternal love.

At dinner time, the devil made Judas Iscariot want to betray Jesus.

Jesus knew that he had come from God and was returning to God; so he got up from the meal.

"Jesus! Why are you standing up? You need something?"

"No. I just have to do something, right now."

Jesus took off his outer clothing, and brought a towel wrapping around his waist.

After that, he poured water into a bowl and began to wash his disciples' feet,

"Jesus! Why are you doing this?"

"I'm washing you not because you are dirty but because I love you."

"Then, we are going to wash your feet."

"We will wash you! Because we love you."

Jesus washed the disciples feet and dried them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

Now, it was Simon Peter's turn.

"Jesus, how can you wash my feet? "

"You don't understand now what I am doing, but later you will."

"I don't get it. Anyway, you can't wash my feet. Nope. Never!"

"Is it? Unless I wash you, you have no part with me. Is it ok with you?"

"In that case, Jesus! Sure you can! Not just my feet but my hands and my head, as well!"

"A person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet;

Then his whole body is clean. And you are clean, now. Because I washed your feet."

"Ok, Jesus."

"But not every one of you."

"My Lord! You said we need only to wash our feet to be clean. You washed our feet, so now we are all clean. Aren't we?"

"No. Not every one."

Because Jesus knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not everyone was clean.

When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his table and said.

"Do you know why I have washed your feet?"

"Umm.. Actually, we have no idea."

"When you call me, what do you say?"

"We call you 'Lord,' or 'Teacher'"

"Yes. That is what I am. I am your 'Lord' and 'Teacher'"

"So.....What about that? Jesus?"

"I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet,"

"Yes, you did."

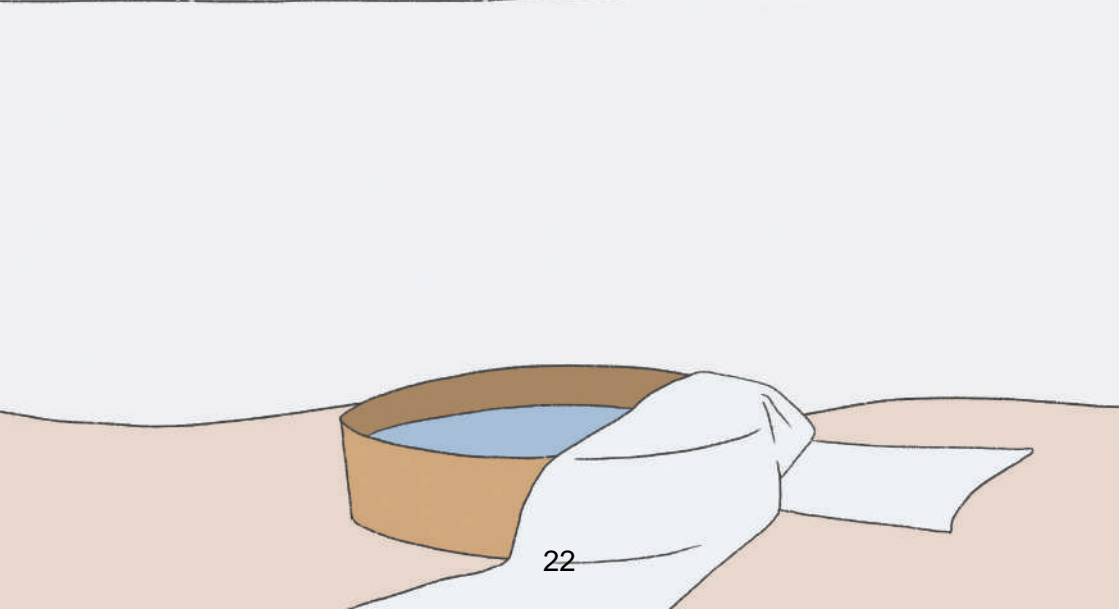

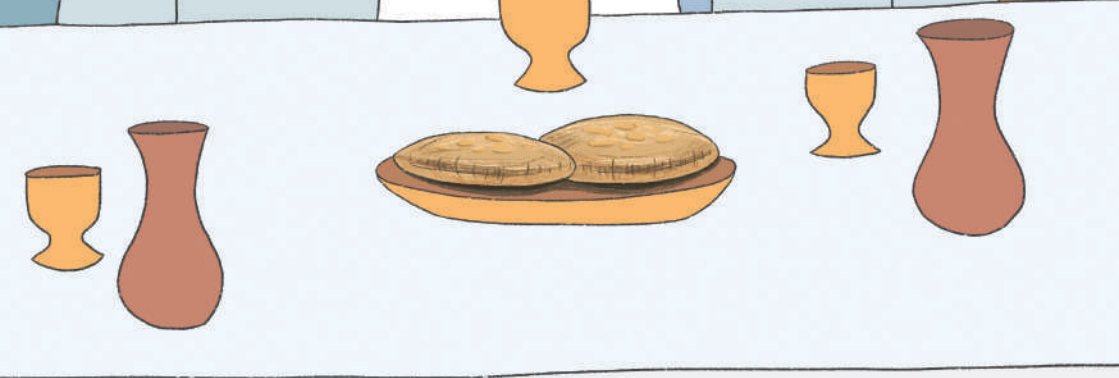

"I have showed you as a model that you should do as I have done for you. I tell you the truth. No servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.

"Yes it is. Jesus. Though you are our teacher, you have washed our feet."

"So now, you also should wash one another's feet. Like I did with love, you do the same thing. Love one another."

"Yes, Lord. Now we understand. We will do as you said."

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another." (John 13:34-35)

My beloved son and daughter,

The Jews have to wash their hands and feet before they eat. So when you visit someone's house, its servants will wash your feet. The lower do it to the higher. All the disciples wanted to be the higher one, so they didn't wash one another's feet. That is why I, the Lord and Teacher, showed them love with washing their feet. So that they love each other.

Today, I know you washed another's feet, too?

Thank you for keeping my word as I did to the disciples.

Love you. My son and daughter!

Forevermore love you

Jesus,

Beloved Jesus,

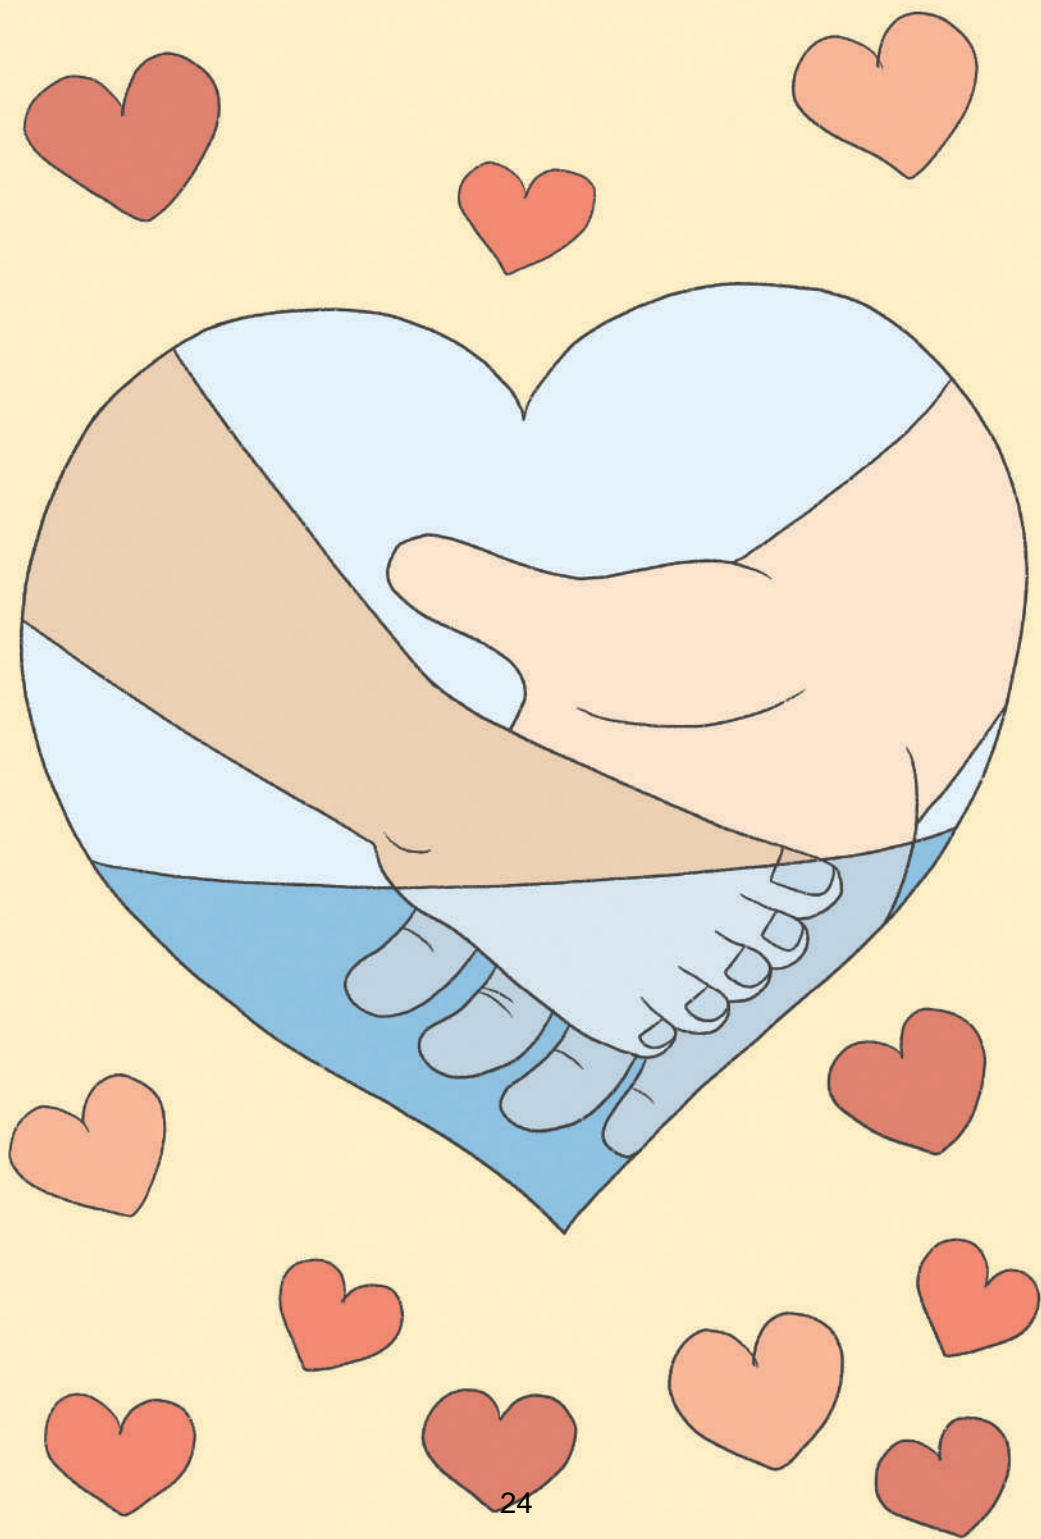

Today, at Sunday school, my teacher washed my feet. And we have a homework, "Washing parents' feet at home." So, I did.

It was hard, because my mom's feet were huge. At first, she laughed a lot, for I tickled her. But later, she cried aloud holding me tightly! Because she cried, I cried, too. When I was crying, inside my heart, it was filled with warm water. I kissed my mom, saying, "I love you." My dad is coming soon, I'm going to wash his feet as well.

Yes I will! Jesus, I love you, too!

Love,

I

4. Last dinner with Jesus

(Matthew 26:17-30, Mark 14:12-26, Luke 22:7-23, John 13:21-30, Corinthians 11:23-25)

This was the last dinner that Jesus and the disciples had. They were all sitting around together and Jesus said.

“One of you is going to betray me.”

The disciples stared at one another, not knowing who was the one.

John whom Jesus loved most, was leaning next to him. Peter motioned to John and said.

“Hey, John! Is it you?”

“What are you talking about? It must be you, then.”

“I would never! Just ask him.”

Leaning back against Jesus, John asked him.

“Lord! Who is it? Who is going to betray you?”

“It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish.”

Then, dipping the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas Iscariot.

As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him.

Jesus said to Judas.

"What you are about to do, do quickly,"

but no one understood why Jesus said this to him. For Judas had charge of the money, some thought Jesus was telling him to buy what was needed for the Feast, or to give something to the poor.

Because of what Jesus said, the disciples were shocked. They all were worried and asked Jesus.

"Jesus! It isn't me, right?"

Jesus answered.

"The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me. Woe to that man. It would be better for him if he had not been born."

Then Judas, the one who would betray him, asked.

"Teacher! It isn't me, right?"

"You said so."

Now, it is time for eating.

Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples.

"Take it; this is my body given for you; eat it and never forget about me."

Also he took the cup, giving thanks and gave it to them.

Drink from it, all of you.

This is my blood of the promise, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. Drink it and never forget me."

Though the disciples had the last dinner with Jesus, they could not understand what he meant.

But after Jesus died on the cross, they could understand.

It was the meaning of his words that they should remember Jesus' love whenever they share the bread and take the cup.

After dinner, they had sung a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. (Corinthians 11:23-25)

My beloved son and daughter,

The bread is my body and the cup is my blood. So don't forget and always remember what I said.

It was really hard for me to have a dinner with Judas. Because I knew he would betray me. But actually, I felt pity on him. It was the satan. It took Judas' heart. So I told him three times. First, when I washed their feet, second, when I gave him the piece of bread and last, when I dipped my hand into the bowl with him. But it didn't work, because he already made up his mind to follow the satan. Even though the words about me had to be fulfilled, I was sad because it was through my beloved disciples.

That's why I wish you wake up and pray all the time. So that you don't fall by the satan. I love you.

Love you forever,
Jesus

Beloved Jesus,

Sometimes at church, there is time to eat bread and drink wine. I was angry because it was only for my mom and dad. They said I am too young to do that. When I become a teenager and get baptized, then I can eat and drink. Untill then, Jesus, I will wait, being a good daughter, going to church every Sunday and telling my friends about you.

"Jesus, I love you."

Love,

5. The trial of Jesus

(Matthew 27:11-26, Mark 15:2-15, Luke 23:1-5,13-25)

The chief priests, with the elders, led Jesus away and handed him over to Pilate, the governor. He was the ruler of the Jews. Pilate asked Jesus.

"Are you the king of the Jews?"

"Yes, it is as you say,"

"Is it true that they are bringing against you?"

"....."

"Why aren't you saying anything?"

Pilate was amazed because Jesus didn't reply.
Outside, a lot of people accused Jesus.

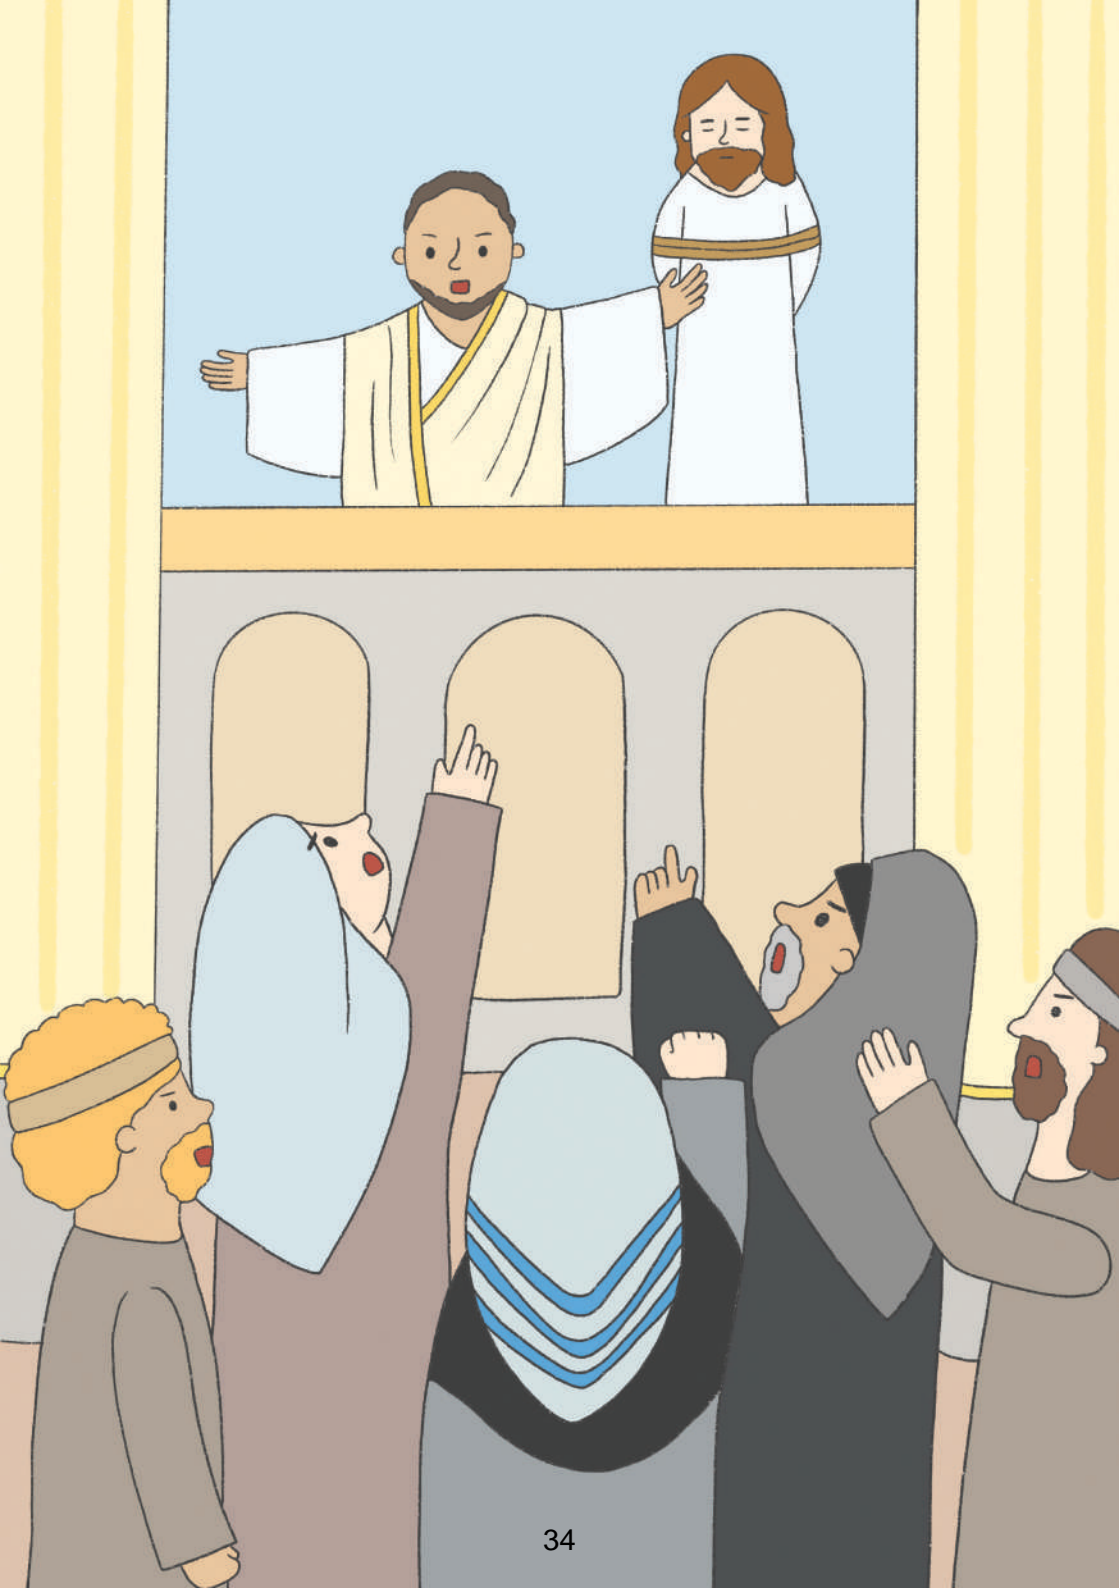

"He said he himself is the Son of God."

"He said he is the king of the Jews."

"He said he is the Christ who saves us."

Then Pilate went outside and shouted to the crowd.

"This man is not wrong. I can't find any bad thing against this man."

But the crowd shouted all the more.

"He tricked the people all over Judea by his teaching. He started in Galilee and has come all the way here. He is the trouble maker."

Jesus didn't say anything.

Pilate knew that the people was jealous of him and hate him. That is the only reason they handed Jesus over to him. He wanted to set Jesus free. Because he was innocent.

Now it was the custom at the Feast to set free a prisoner whom the people wanted.

So Pilate asked the crowd.

"Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus?"

"We want Barabbas"

"There is no sin against Jesus. On the other hand Barabbas is very cruel man as you know."

"Barabbas! Barabbas! We want Barabbas!"

Pilate's wife sent him the message.

"Pilate! I was troubled in a dream because of this Jesus. Don't have anything to do with that innocent man."

The crowd kept shouting "Barabbas". So Pilate released Barabbas. He thought he can do nothing about it.

"What shall I do then, this Jesus?"

"Nail him to the cross!"

"What? Why? What has he done?"

"Nail to the cross! Nail him!"

"Nail him? So I should nail your king to the cross?"

"We don't have a king. Nail him to the cross!"

"I will ask one more time. Should I nail your king to the cross?"

"We have no king but Caesar. Nail him to the cross!!"

Pilate was afraid that the crowd would make a big trouble.

So he took water and washed his hands and said.

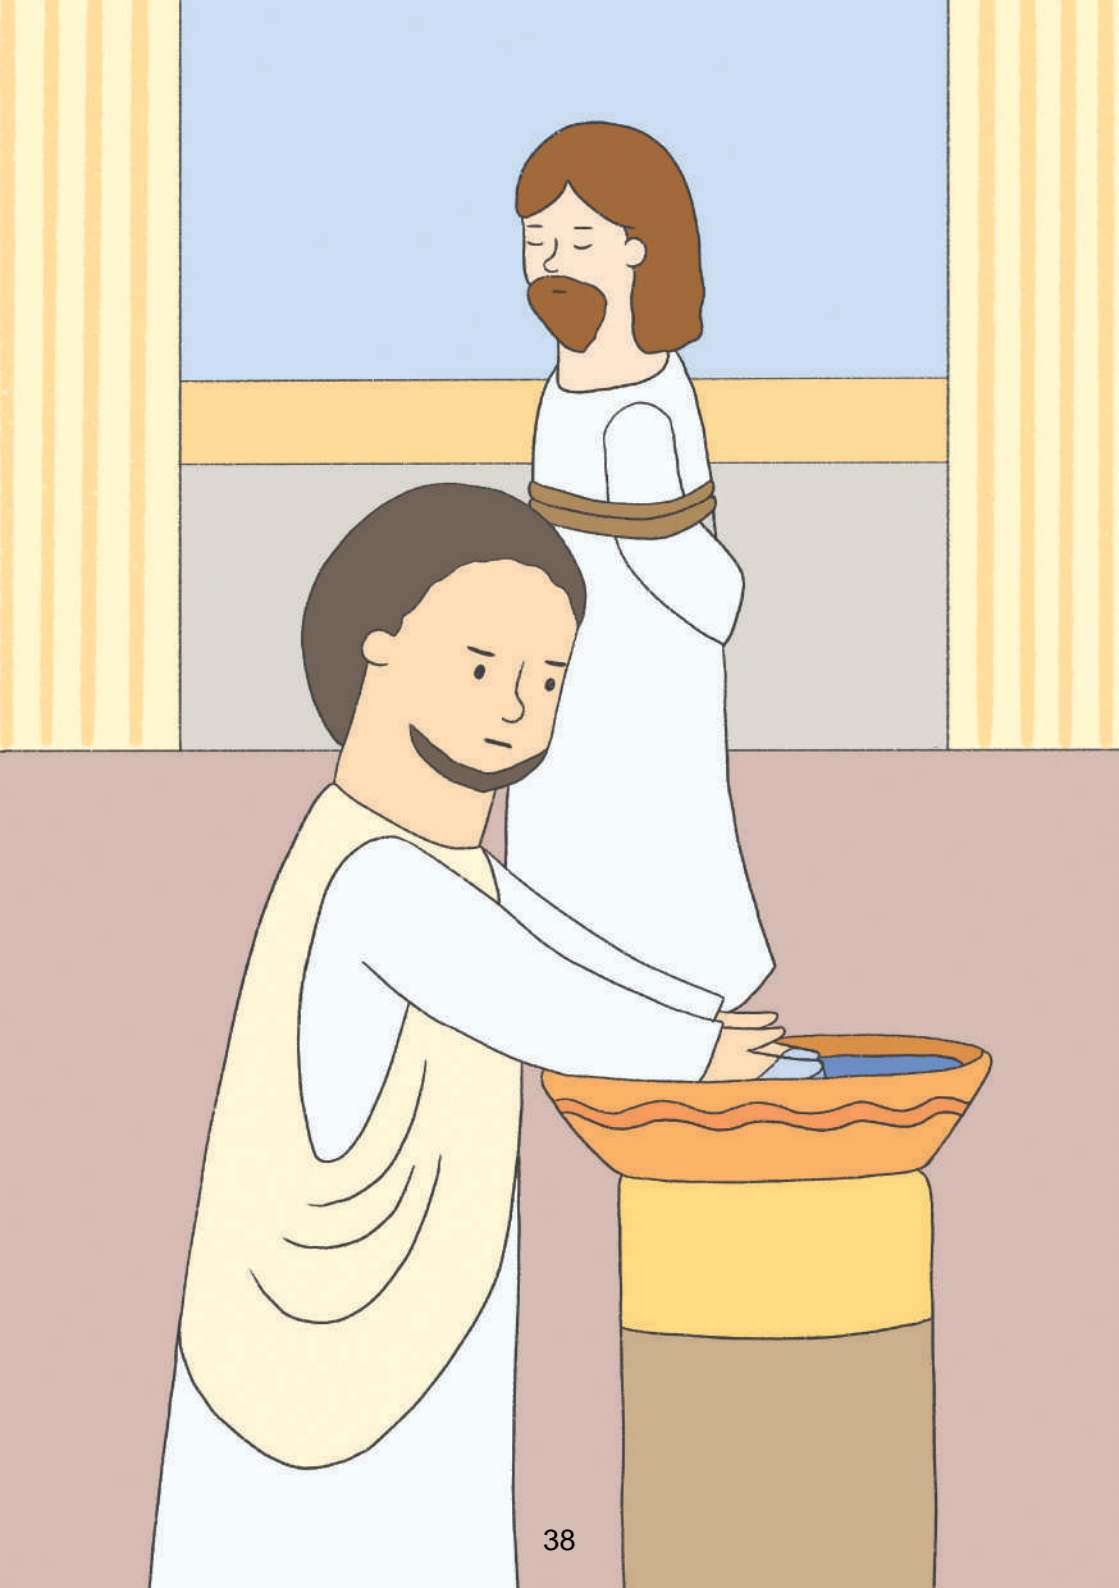

"I am innocent of this Jesus' blood, It is your sin!"

"Alright. We and our children will take the panalty of this."

Pilate released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be nailed.

"You are a king, then!" said Pilate. Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

(John 18:37)

My beloved son and daughter,

All of them who handed me over to be nailed on the cross knew that I was innocent. The chief priests, and the elders couldn't accept that I am the king of the jews and I am the Son of God. They were jealous of me. Because people followed me and loved me. So they spread bad rumors about me so that people would hate me.

Beloved my children!

Think about your friends and your feelings for them. Maybe you envy your good friends. If you do, pray that It is wrong and you want to be changed.

Love you forever,

Jesus

Beloved Jesus,

I am a bad person. I don't want to say bad words. But my friends said I were a fool if I would say bad words like them. So I said bad words at a kid who built the blocks faster than me.

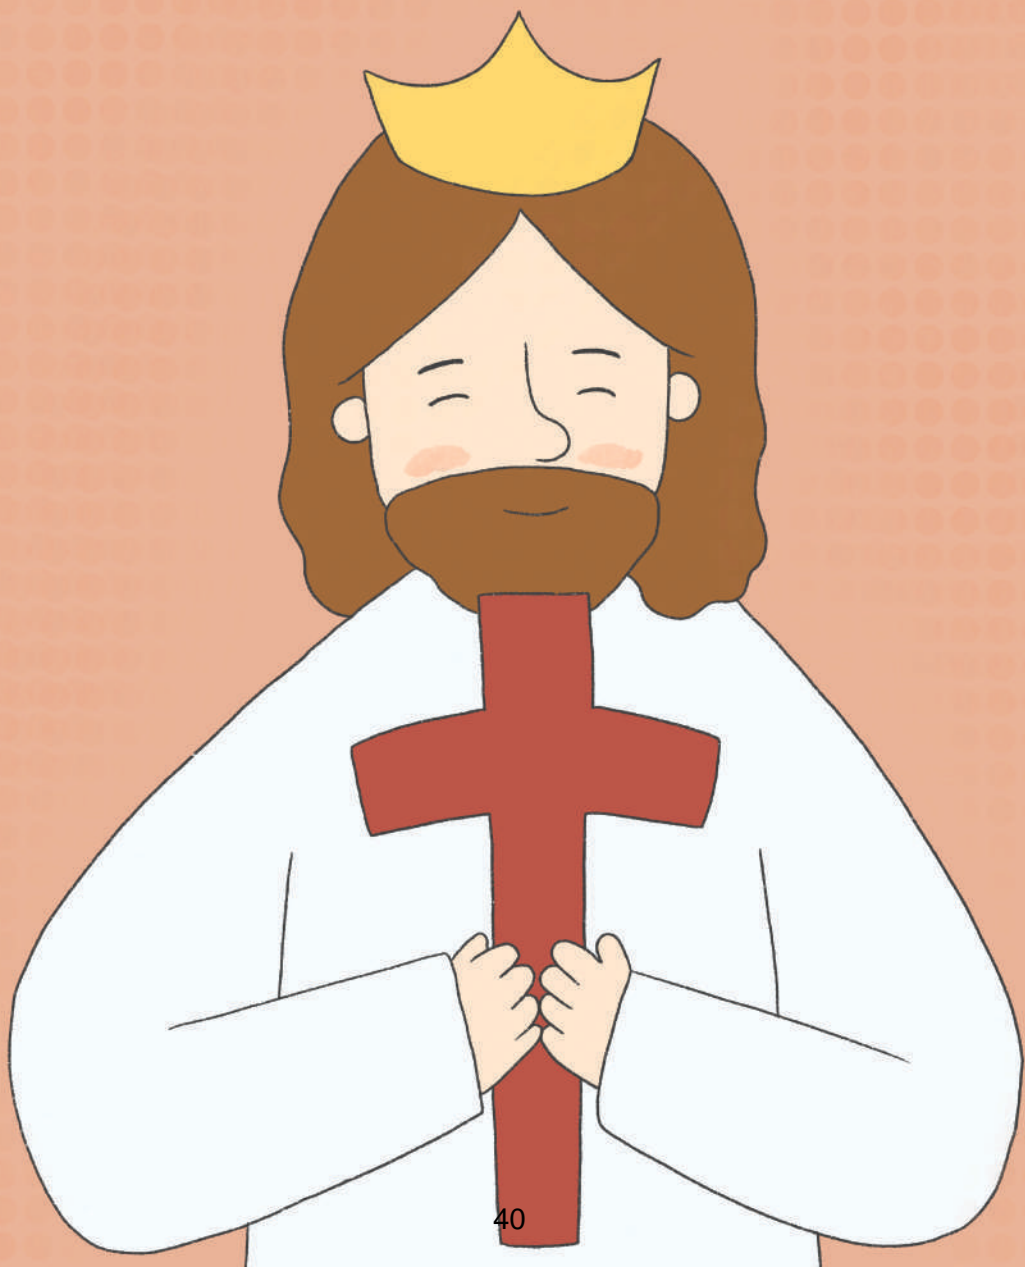

The thing is.. I felt so bad. I thought about you. I knew you hate bad words.

Jesus! I pray about the bad thoughts, lying, envy, hating someone. All of them would disappear.

"I love you, Jesus"

6. Jesus is nailed to a cross

(Matthew 22:27-44, Mark 15:21-32, Luke 23:26-31, John 19:17-22)

Finally, Pilate made a decision to nail Jesus to a cross as they wanted.

He released Barabbas, the murderer and handed Jesus over to them.

So the soldiers took Jesus into the governor's house.

There, they gathered the whole company of soldiers around him and bully for him.

"Hey, hey! Take off his clothes and put a purple cloth on him. It is for the royal. "

"You are right. If he is the king, then he should wear the king's cloth, the purple one."

"Also he needs a crown. Let's make a crown with thorns and put it on his head! Hee-haw"

"What about the golden staff? Kings have golden staff! Instead of golden staff, give his right hand the reed."

"What else is there?"

They knelt in front of him and made fun of him.

"Hail, king of the Jews! Peace be with you!"

They spat on him, took the reed staff, hit him on the head again and again and laughed at him.

After they did enough, they took off the purple cloth and put his own clothes on him.

Then they led him outside.

Jesus carried his own cross in great pain.
At that moment, a man from Cyrene, Simon was passing by Jesus.

"Hey! You there! Come up here and take this, instead of Jesus!"

They forced him to carry the cross and follow Jesus behind.

A large number of people followed Jesus, walking. Among them, there were women who cried and bit their heart for him.

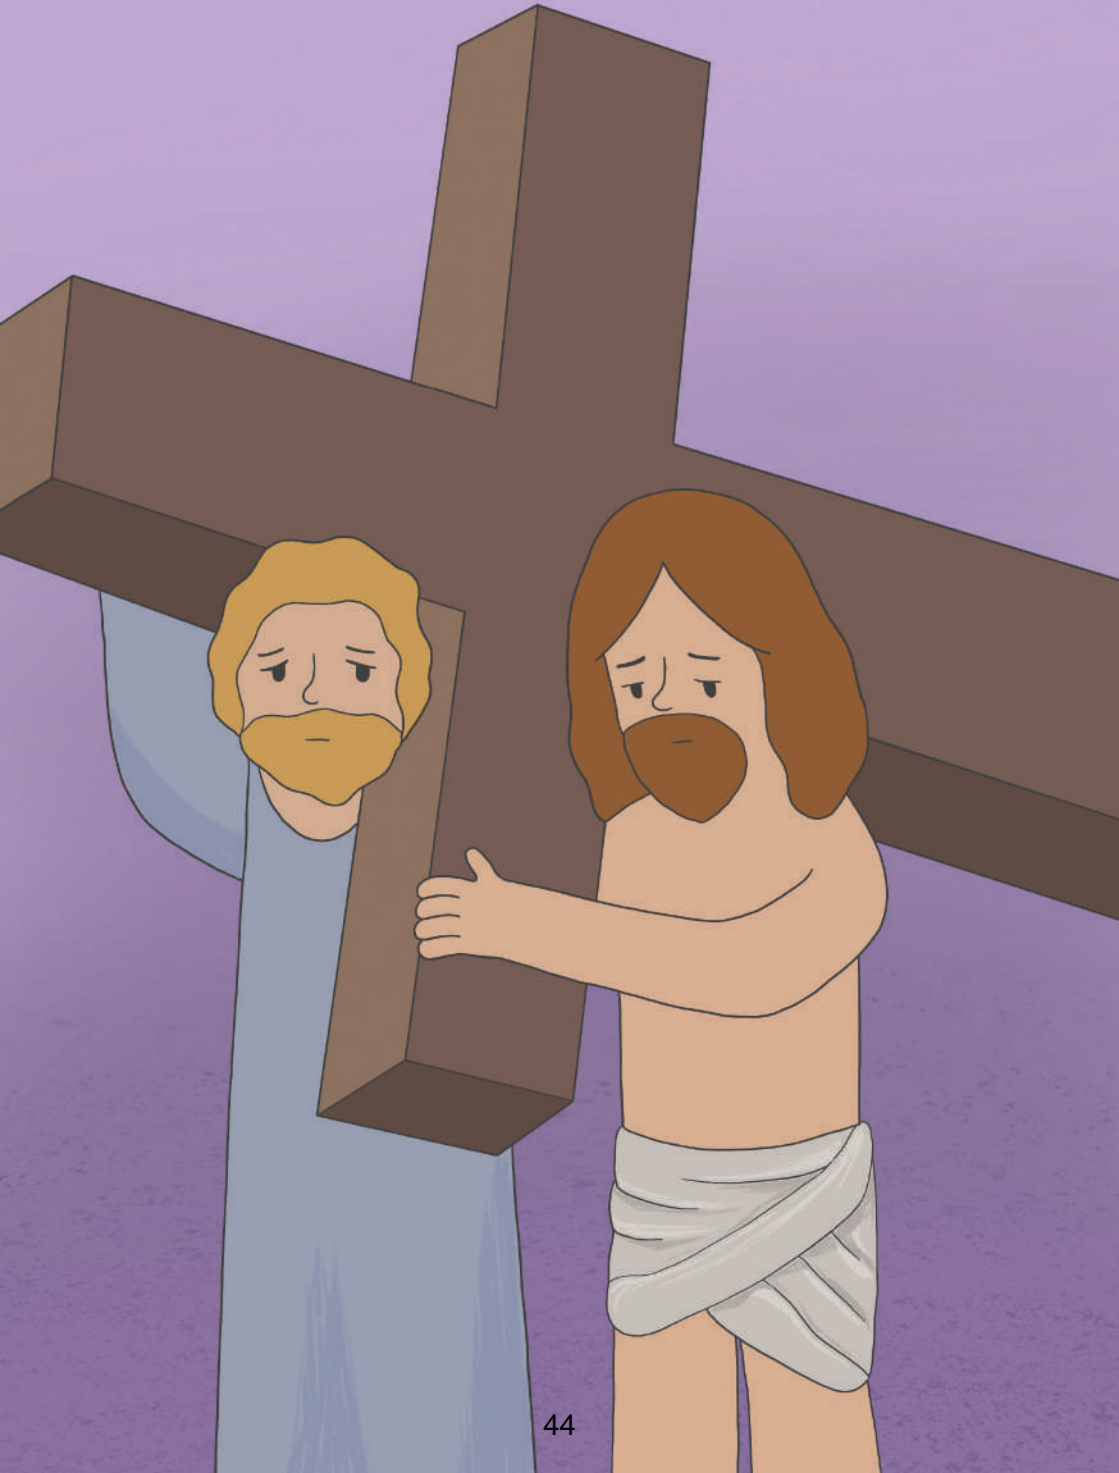

Jesus turned and said to them,

"Daughters of Jerusalem! Don't cry for me. Cry for yourselves and for your children! if men do these things to the green tree like me, what will happen to the dry tree like the Jews?"

Jesus went out to the place the Golgotha.
There they gave Jesus wine to drink, mixed with gall;

"Hey! The king of the Jews! Drink some!"

But after tasting it, he didn't drink it.

"Why don't you drink it? Have some. It is wine mixed with gall. It can ease your pain..."

"We care for you friend. Drink some!"

But once tasting it, he didn't drink it.

Pilate made a notice and fastened to the cross.

" JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

Many people read this sign, because the Golgotha was near the city, and the sign was written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek. So everyone could read it.

The chief priests and the Jews asked Pilate,

"Write that 'This man claimed to be the king of the Jews.'"

"What I have written, I have written. No more requests."

At the Golgotha hill, the soldiers nailed Jesus to a cross.

"Bam! bam!"

"Ugh...ugh"

Jesus endured all the pain to finish God's will on a cross.

Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross. It read: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. (John 19:19)

JESUS NAZARENVS
REX IVDAEORVM

My beloved son and daughter,

Why do you think that I took my cross? Why did they set the bad guy free and nailed me to the cross?

That's because it was God's will. He sacrificed me, the son of God, to show his great love for you.

He sent me to the world and took your sin, instead of you. Because of my death, your sins can be forgiven through your prayer. Not just prayer, but also through the faith in me, you can be God's child and come to Heaven.

So tell everyone this good news. I love you.

Love you forever,

Jesus

Beloved Jesus,

Jesus! It's so sad. Why didn't you drink the wine mixed with gall? They said it could ease your pain.

I asked my Sunday school teacher. Then she answered me with tears.

"Maybe, it could ease Jesus' pain. But he endured all the pain with his whole body to the end. Because that pain was our sins"

Today, I cried and cried. Because your love is so great! Jesus! I thank you. Jesus! I ! love ! you!

So much loved by Jesus,

7. The thief on the cross was saved

(Matthew 27:38-44 Luke 23:32-43 John 19:23-25)

With Jesus, there were two bad men nailed on the cross that day, one on his right and one on his left.

Jesus said.

"Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing."

The soldiers who nailed Jesus, tore his clothes into four and shared evenly. Also, they wanted to keep his underwear.

"This underwear is seamless, It is one piece from top to bottom."

"Let's not tear it. Let's decide by lot who will get it."

"You are right. Let's do it."

King David said this would happen in Old Testament. That was what the soldiers exactly did.

"They divided my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing."(psalm 22:18)

People who passed by laughed at him, shaking their heads.

"Aha! You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days! if you are the Son of God, you can save yourself!"

"Yeah~ Save yourself and come down from the cross,!"
The soldiers also laughed at him, teasing.

"If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!"

In the same way, the chief priests and the elders made fun of him.

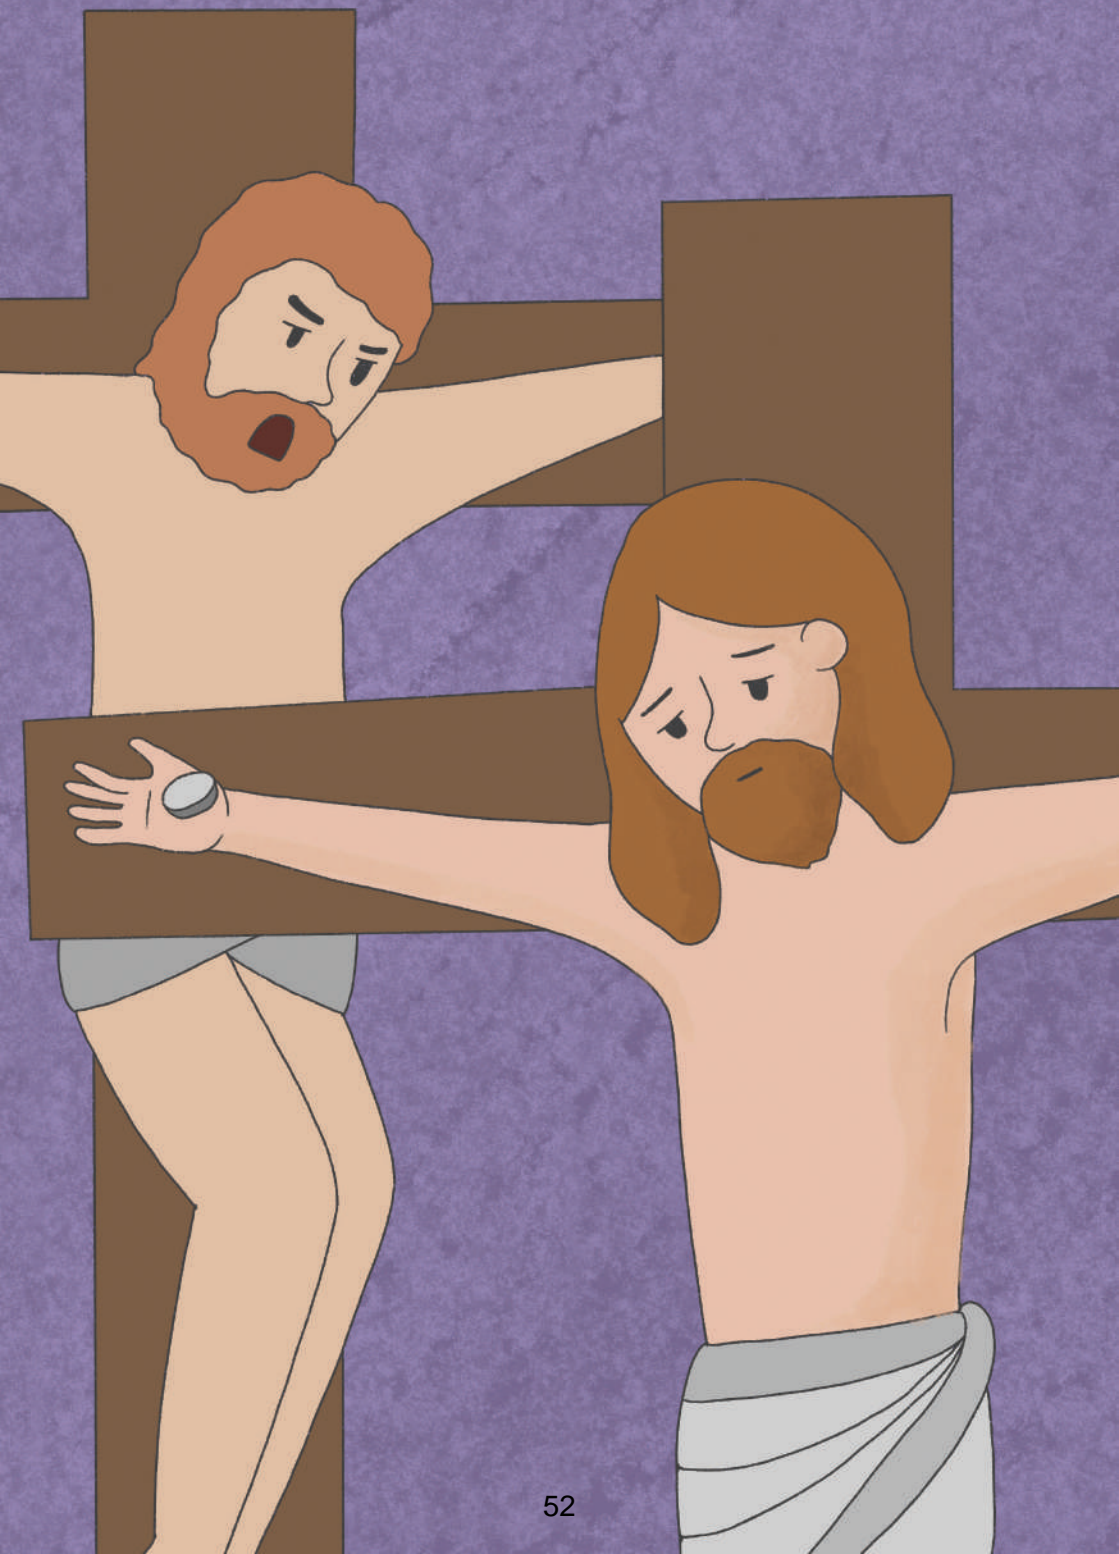

"He saved others, but he can't save himself! "

"Oh! Here is the King of Israel! Come down now, from the cross, and we will believe in you."

"Right. He said he is the Son of God. Now let God rescue him."

At that, the thief who was next to Jesus also cursed on him.

"Hey, you! If you are the King of Israel, come down from the cross. Save yourself and us! Then we can see and believe!"

Then, another thief scolded him.

"Hey! You are a sinner. But you cursed Jesus? Don't you fear God,"

"Who do you think you are to teach me!"

"We stole other's things, so we deserve to be punished. But what has Jesus done? "

"He did worse than we did."

"No! he did nothing wrong!"

Then he said to Jesus

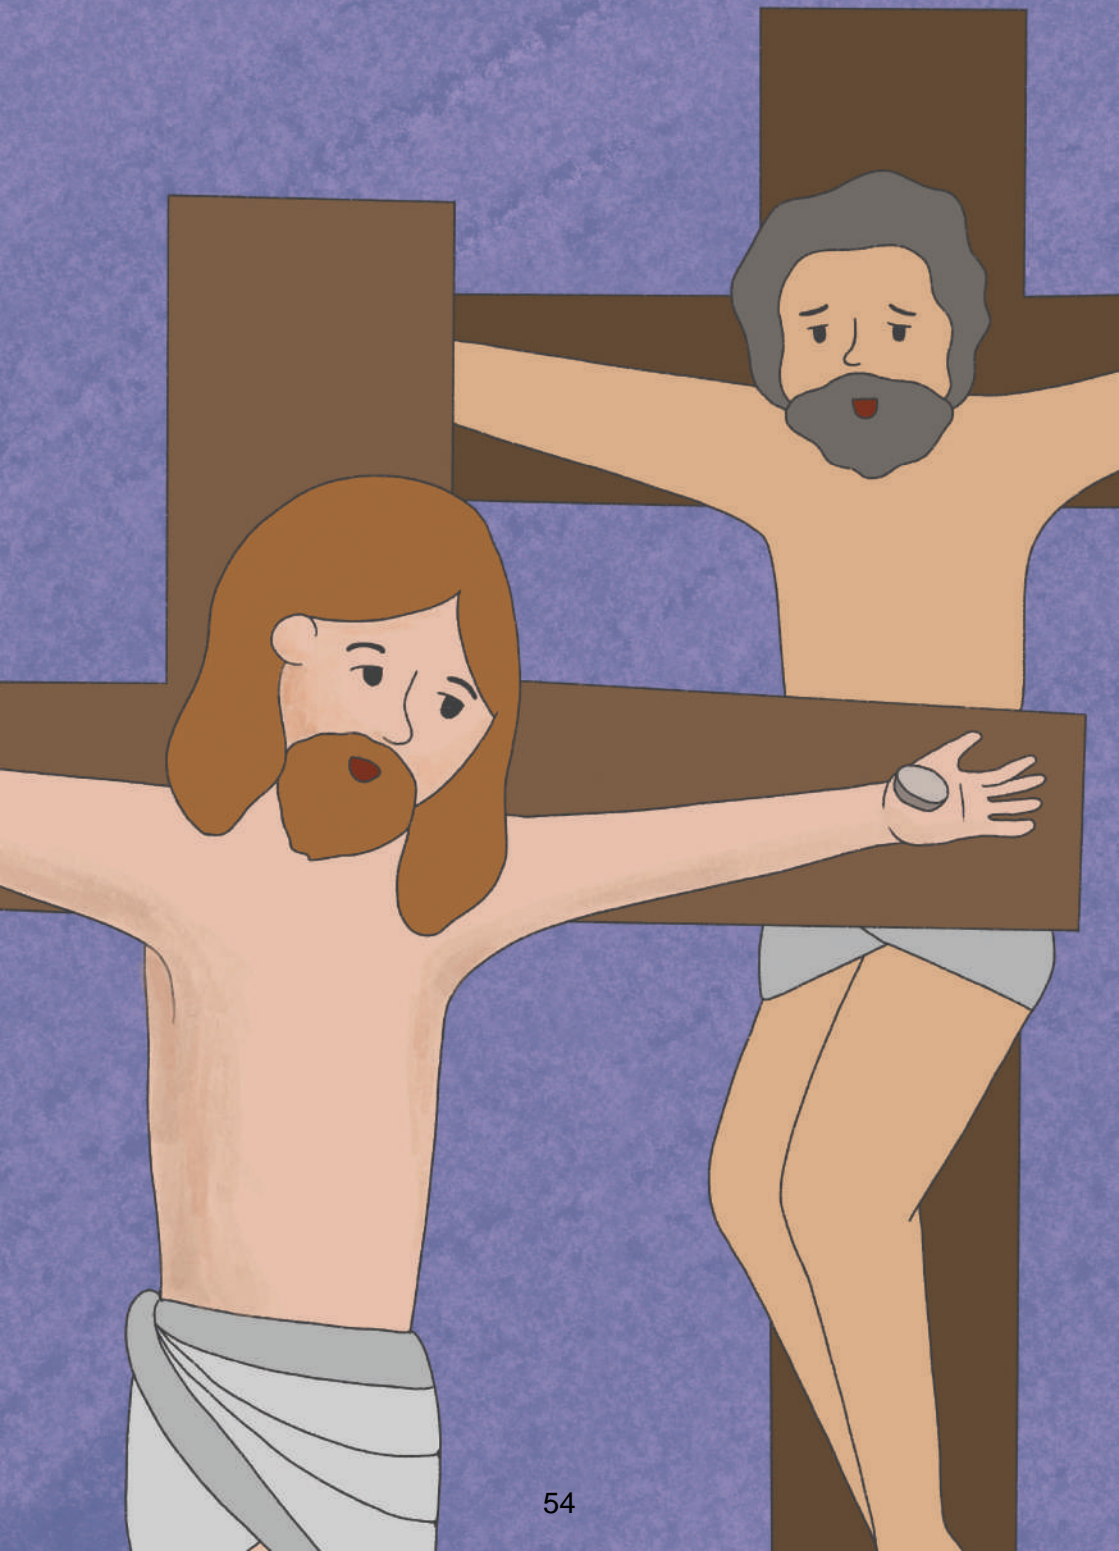

"Jesus! Remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Jesus answered him,

"I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise."

The thief was saved right before his death. Because he accepted Jesus and believed in him.

Jesus answered him, "I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise."(Luke 23:43)

My beloved son and daughter,

I wonder what you think about the two thieves. They were at the same time and same place. But the one was saved and the other was not. The one accepted he was a sinner and repented. And he asked me to save him. He was so precious to me. So I let him come with me in paradise. But the other one cursed on me and didn't believe in me. So he missed the chance, forever.

My beloved children!

You do bad things in your lifetime. Of course, everyone can do bad things. But that moment, you have to bring your sin to me. Then you can be forgiven. Just like the thief who was saved. My first and last wish is that all of you believe in me and would be saved. I love you!

Love you forever,

Jesus,

Beloved Jesus,

Jesus! I was thinking a lot, today.

The people were so mean! How could they do these things to you?

They followed you and loved you, for what? They changed their minds and laughed at you when you were on a cross with much pain! How could they make fun of you? I don't understand. And the other thief! He was dying on a cross! But why he cursed on you? Oh my.. But one thing was good. The one who was saved. He went to a paradise with you. That is only hope for me. I love you Jesus. I do, a lot!

Love,

8. Death of Jesus

(Matthew 27:45-61, Mark 15:33-47, Luke 23:44-56, John 19:25-42)

Near the cross of Jesus, There were his mother, his aunt, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said,

"Dear woman, look at me, here is your son,"

"Dear my disciple, Here is your mother."

From that time on, this disciple took Jesus' mother into his home.

At noon, the sun, suddenly, stopped shining and darkness came over the whole land.

"It is noon! The weather is strange. It's like night. It is all dark..

"The whole land is in darkness."

It was so dark until 3 in the afternoon.

At that, Jesus cried out in a loud voice.

"Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? My God, my God, why have you left me all alone?"

"I'm thirsty"

IESUS NAZARENUS
REX IUDAEORUM

When one of those standing there, heard this and said,

"He's calling Elijah."

Another man ran, filled a sponge with wine vinegar, put it on a stick, and offered it to Jesus to drink.

Then the people said bad words at him,
"Hey you! leave him alone. Let's see if Elijah comes and saves."

Jesus cried out again in a loud voice.

"It is finished."

"Father, I give my spirit into your hands"

Jesus bowed down his head and his spirit was gone and he died.

The soldiers came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs.

Instead, one of the soldiers pierced Jesus' side with a spear, then blood and water flew out of him.

At that moment, the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

Then the land shook, there was earthquake and the rocks split.

Those with Jesus were terrified.

"Surely, he was the Son of God!"

When the centurion saw all that had happened, he said,

"Surely this man was a righteous."

All the people who had gathered saw what had happen, they beat their breasts and went away.

Also those who knew Jesus, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Now, there was a man named Joseph. He was a good and upright man waiting for the kingdom of God. He didn't join them who nailed Jesus on the cross..

After death of Jesus, he went to Pilate.

"Give me the body of Jesus"

So Joseph took down the body, wrapped it in the linen cloth and placed it in a new tomb.

The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it.

"Now, we saw where Jesus had laid, so let us go back and prepare spices and perfumes "

Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." When he had said this, he breathed his last. (Luke 23:46)

My beloved son and daughter,

Today, I want to tell you about the curtain of the temple. The curtain of the temple was between man and God. It was like a curtain block. It was hanging from the ceiling to the floor. The moment that I was dead, it was torn in two from top to bottom. Its length was 18 meters. If it was torn from bottom to top, then people would say it was a lie. But I assure you that it was torn from top to bottom. That means it was from God. God himself did it. Through tearing the curtain, you can see God in person. That's why he did it. He wants to meet you, directly. Through me, you can come to God, directly. So you just need to believe in me. Ok? I love you so much.

Forevermore love you
Jesus,

Beloved Jesus,

Today at Sunday school, I learned 7 verses you said on the cross. It is hard to remember but I won't forget. See.

No.1

"Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing."

No.3

"Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?"

No.5

"I am thirsty."

No.7

"Father, into your hands I commit my spirit."

Jesus! Tears drop from my eyes when I think about you and the cross. I want to know your love and have that same love in me. I love you Jesus.

No.2

"I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise."

No.4

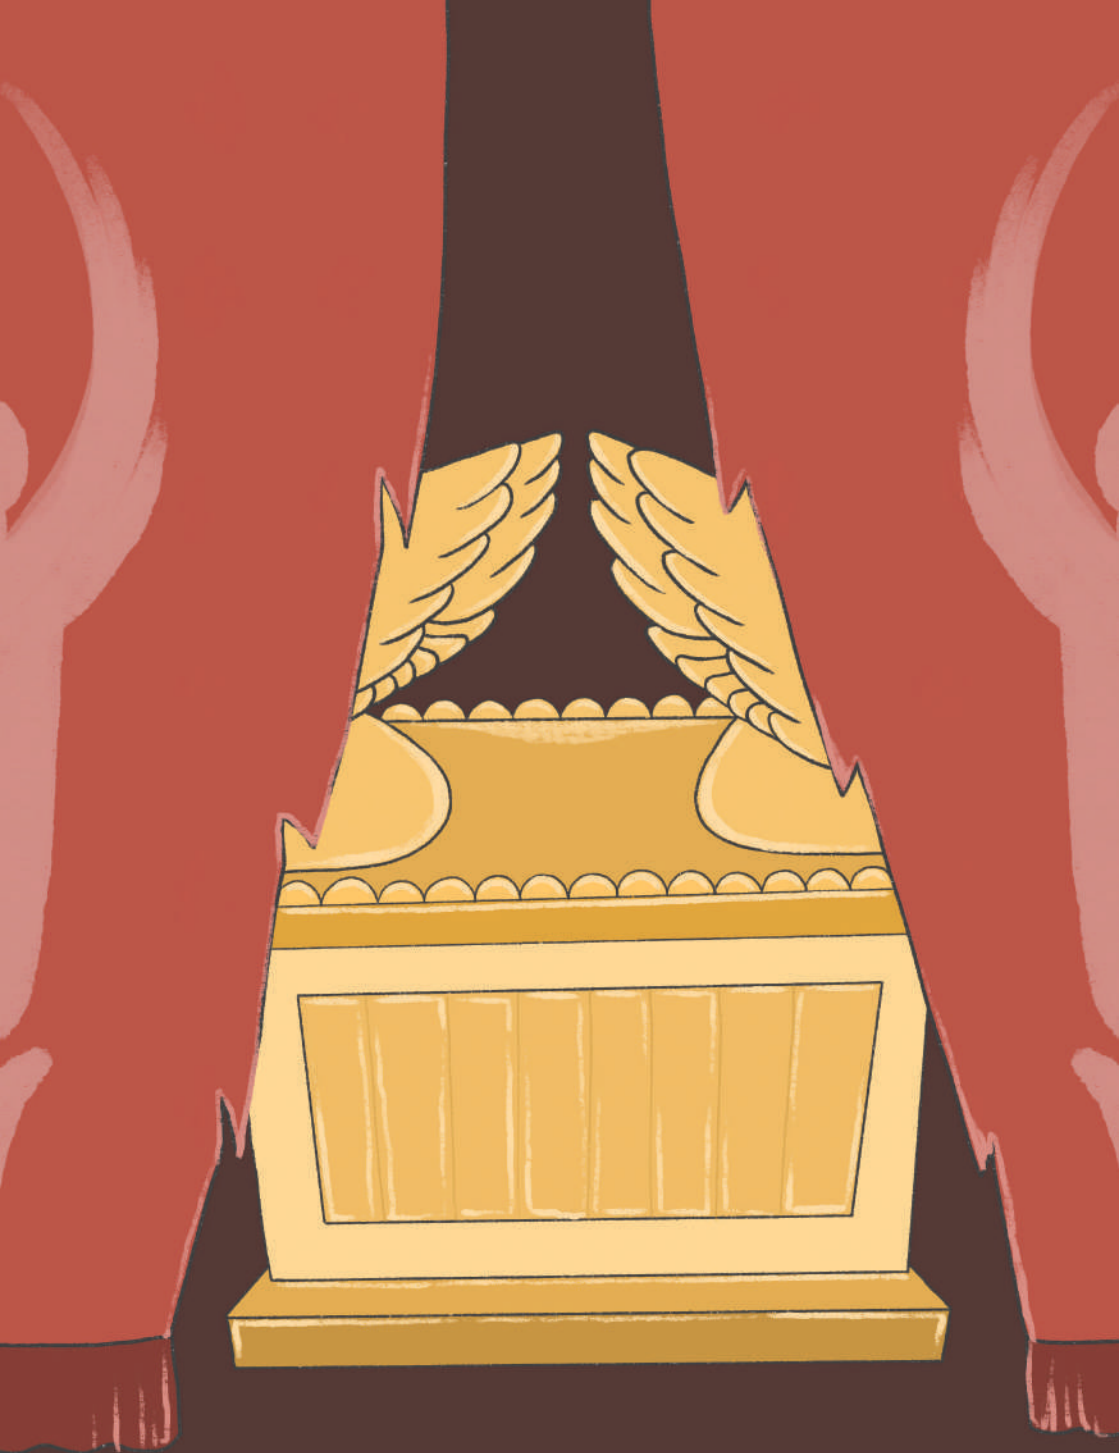

"Dear woman, here is your son,.Here is your mother"

No.6

"It is finished"

Love,
